dedication

MR. LOVE

MISS HENCHEY

To Mr. Claude Love and Miss Helen Henchey, our capable advisors, who through their friendly co-operation and kind assistance endeared themselves to every member of the senior class, we, the class of nineteen thirty-nine, do dedicate this Manichigan.

In Memory of

ELOISE JOHNSON

October 16, 1923 — March 1, 1939

UNHEARING

Shut softly in a stilly world,
Her days have fallen without sound,
Late roses dropped upon the ground.

Serenely beautiful and kind,
She smiles out from her separate star,
Where only quiet people are.

The widening casements of her mind
Swing outward to the morning's glow;
She hears the secrets of the snow.

She hears the things we may not hear.
A far wind stirs the sleeping strings;
Deaf to one world, another sings.

—Ada Alden

MR. MARTINEAU

Joseph Martineau, custodian of our high school for 20 years retired on December 15, 1938.

During his long term of service, Mr. Martineau was an efficient and capable workman and it was with a sincere feeling of regret that the Board of Education accepted his resignation.

A party was given in his honor by the teachers and administrators and he was presented a ticket which will admit him to all school activities.

Manichigan Staff

The members of the Manichigan Staff wish to thank Mr. Tuohy and the members of his printing classes for printing our Annual and for the very fine co-operation they have given us. We also wish to thank the business people and the Fraternal Orders who have made our yearbook financially possible by their purchases of advertising.

Class Prophecy

Here we are
Preparing to make our way
In a world of toil and struggle,
That goes on from day to day.

Here we are
Just about the same,
Except we've changed our fortunes,
And we've changed our names.

We have our lives before us,
And in the future we will be
Doctors, lawyers, merchants,
As ruled by destiny.

The time is June in 1954. We look around and see how many more. Some have brought their children to our class reunion and we are remembering faintly our class prophecy of 1939.

"Why remember," said Marge Wolters, "how close our prophecy came to being correct." By the way, Marge brought her two children with her to the reunion. Yes, she married the young fellow whom she had been going steady with throughout her high school years. Kay Barnes, Lorraine Friedman, Shirley Raskey, Harriet Hill, Iris Brugman, Barbara Whalen, and Jane Wellman are all sitting in a corner bubbling over with news. They are discussing the problems of children. Of course, these girls are married and live in different cities. Lorraine lives in Chicago, and was a teacher in a well known speech school until she was married to a lawyer. Kay makes a grand little wife to her husband who owns a chain of newpapers. Barbara also lives in Manistee along with Marge. Barbara married a young man who now owns a grocery store. Jane won a degree in arguing and has a grand position in a law firm.

Gilman Gambs is a famous criminal lawyer. Norman Knudstrup, our former president, also took up law and now is in partnership with the Gambs-Knudstrup firm.

Ray Johnson really stepped aside from his first job, which was a gigolo and walked into a high paid engineering project.

Jack Turner is a millionaire and is now retired. He made a fortune in the munition business while the war was on. Yes, he married Shirley.

Esther Adamski is a beauty operator in the city. Ruth Fenske has a, Gown shop. Marymae Davis, Dorothy Boulee, Ruth McNeil, Betty Scott. Lorraine Young, and Neva Rumbell are mannequins in the shop.

Gerald Baker is the highest paid baseball player of the year. Clayton Anderson and Arnold Anderson are his managers. Bob Drew won a cup for being the best athlete of the world.

Donald Deising is a mathematics professor. Instructors in the same college are: Hilda Davis, Eileen Foster, Gene Porter. They are the heads of the art department.

Carl Hermann is the owner of a chain of drug stores. Working with him are: Quentin Bond, Robert Buckingham, Bernard Majkszak, David Hansen, Arnold Ohst, Charles Racine, Robert Switalski, Richard Veine, and Peter Wojciechowski.

Donald Larson is managing the great basketball team composed of Walter Mikula, who is star, and Norman Bradshaw, Clarence Krolczyk, John Guzikowski, and Edmund Gutowski.

Great actresses of the New York stage are: Thelma Lunbom, Laurie Anderson, who sings, Virginia Anderson, Floyd Toczynski, Wilfred Battige, Belle Bradford, and Wilma Bushor.

Margaret Bukowski won an olympic meet in swimming. Stenographers to the well known hunter and author Bill Carty and his wife, Doris Carlson are: Wilfred Battige, Hattie Beyer, Sophie Butler, Ruth Campbell.

Bill Daniel's orchestra is the most famous of the day, his features are singer, Bill Kruse, and drummer, Donglas Kenny; the rest of the band is composed of: Thelma Paulson, Rita Newman, Eleanore Mucha, Peter Walsh, Edward Kolanowski, John Graves, Alvin Janowiak, and Warren Hornkohl. Grace Olsen is the business manager of Bill's band.

William Pearce, Howard Swanson, Joseph Gerszewski, and Gorden Gielczyk are State Police.

Lorraine DePeel has a chain of grocery stores running throughout Northern Michigan. Engaged in her stores as clerks are: Betty Jane Davison, Esther Derengoski, Betty Jane Duerr, Elizabeth Frederiksen, Marjorie Graham, Edmund Gutowski, and Ursula Hacker. The managers are Betty Jean Despres and Helen Swanson.

Jeanette Harriss started a business school and has as instructors: Louise Hartgerink, Florence Czarnecki, Henrietta Hess, Patricia Hesslin, Dorothy Johnson and Georgean Johnson.

Raymond Sonefeld is a successful manufacturer of leather goods and has employed in his office the following girl:s Jeanette Sharp, Helen Stubbs, Agatha Polcyn, Clara Pepera, Gertrude Nowak, Jeanette Rademaker, Phyllis Sandgren, and Lorraine Sandborg.

Charlotte Townsend, Delphine Drewnak, Margaret Jorgenson, Melissa Hoffmeister, and Nina Kolb are happily married. Delphine married a young man who leads a well known orchestra. Charlotte married a well-to-do photographer.

Carlton Leutholtz owns a huge hotel aud working in the hotel are: Vera Makinen, Alice Mantych, Helen Lakos, Ellis Mantych, Jeanne Moran, Gertrude Ziegenhagen, Wilma Widing, Norma Vollbrecht, Betty Sweetnam, Ellen Roskosky, and Charles Racine.

Mary Jane Donaldson and Bob Donaldson are in partnership, at the present, with Carl Herman. They just bought half interest in the firm. William Howard was the promoter in the business transaction.

So here in 1954 we all have changed, not only in our looks, but also in our ways. Norman Knudstrup presiding over the reunion meeting mentions that we are to have refreshments in the new hotel of Carlton Leutholtz so we all depart and leave our high school once again.

Senior Carnival

On October 17, the Senior Class sponsored an all school carnival. In connection with this event, a popularity contest was held to determine the most popular boy and girl in school. Two seniors, Arnold Ohst and Laurie Anderson were chosen King and Queen respectively. The proceeds from the carnival were used to help finance our trip to Chicago.

SONG OF A SENIOR

My! How dignified I've grown
Since I reached this great renown;
I, honored, stared at, pointed to
And even envied by a few.
Four years ago in days of yore
I was a freshman to the core;
But now, head high, I walk the halls
And only go where duty calls.
I see the under-classmen romp
While I contrive to walk with pomp
And when they seem too boistrous gay
I just remark, "The tots must play"
Now I've to do the same thing o'er
And go through phases as before;
In college I'll a freshman be
And lack in pride and dignity.
If in business I seek my prize
I'll be a child in others eyes;
And tho' my goal is this time won
The path of life has just begun.

—Alice Mantych

At the time the annual went to press, the above cast, under the direction of Miss Henchey, were working enthusiastically on the farce, "Try It With Alice." This play, chosen to be presented for laugh purposes only, tells the story of the hectic adventures of Sam as he tries to be married in time to inherit a fortune. Deserted at the last minute by his bride who suspects him of interest in another woman, he "marries" his best man disguised as a bride. After the ceremony, Mabel, his first love, suddenly relents and returns only to find Sam with a brand new wife. Complications pile up hopelessly before, Sam, weak and shaken, finally manages to avoid a charge of poisoning one wife to marry another, and only a minute before the deadline set in his uncle's will, he marries a tearful but happy Mabel.

The Log of the Good Ship M.H.S.

The faculty gave us a hard shove and we were off down the ways on our long four years voyage. We rocked slightly at first but then straightened out with Capt. Iris Brugman's steady hand on the wheel. Betty Scott was first mate. Kay Barnes kept the ship's log. Our first adventure occurred when we encountered a hair storm. It showed hair shades for several days. Then came a shower of x and y's. We almost went aground on a bank of Latin verbs. Then all too soon our first year was over. We had left the narrow stretches of the upper river and emerged into the broader lower river. We were Sophomores.

The second year the "'39" ran square into storms of triangular hail numbered A, B, C at the angles. The rattle of typewriter keys almost drowned out the noise of her engines. Capt. Bob Drew, assisted by first mate Grace Olson, saw us safe through the perils of our second year of traveling. This year Betty Jean Despres presided over the log.

The third year the good ship plowed her way into a great estuary. We aboard ship were very busy that year. "Seen But Not Heard" was our choice for a play and proved a great success dramatically and financially. Alas, we did not keep our profits long. After much preparation and last minute decorating the gym emerged a Dutch garden. To the strains of Arnie Johnson's Orchestra another J-Hop was danced away. All through this third year Bob Drew and Grace Olsen had remained our captain and first mate respectively. Carlton Leutholtz faithfully made entries in our log. Just as our Junior year was ending, we decided that for our Skip Day we would leave the ship and go to Chicago. For our senior year's captain, we chose Norman Knudstrup. Gilman Gambs was first mate. To Arnie Ohst was given the work of keeping our log up to date. Carlton Leutholtz was our ship's treasurer.

Then we were off on our fourth year of voyaging. We were in a great harbor now and heading toward the rough waters that lay outside. All our thoughts were on our Skip Day and all our efforts were bent towards raising the necessary funds. The Senior Carnival was our first big project and proved a great success. Skating parties, magazine, food, and Christmas card sales followed in rapid succession. We gave dancing lessons, sponsored dances, and a Junior-Senior basketball game to raise the twelve hundred dollars necessary. The senior play added to our fund. Now there remains only Chicago, Baccalaureate, and then Commencement. Then we will have left the calm harbor and entered the open sea.

The plot of "The Whole Town's Talking," centers around the actions of a scheming business man who, while making his partner an unromantic middle-aged man more attractive in the eyes of his daughter, runs into many difficulties. In his attempts, he invents a love affair between his partner and a famous movie actress, who, appearing at the opportune moment and although working toward her own end, unconsciously makes his efforts successful.

Junior Class Activities

The class of 1940 said as others had said before, "Chicago is our destination!" Therefore, most of the time of the Juniors in the past year was spent by participating in various money-making projects.

The class as a whole received its first lesson in co-operation for the year by undertaking the task of sponsoring an old-fashioned box social. Students of the high school had not previously been introduced to such a type of entertainment. After a great deal of explanation and advertising the social, held in the high school gym, was the big event of October 7. All those who attended found it extremely interesting and a good time (?) was had by all.

Clothes, hair styles, songs and dances come in fads and so with recreation. This year the popular recreational fad was roller-skating and so the class added the next bit to its treasury by claiming all profits from a roller-skating party held on December 12. A large crowd of students supported this activity and it proved a large success. This party was fun to all not only because of the thrills received while skating but because of the unusual talent (?) exhibited by inexperienced skaters.

"Hold on there! Aren't you even going to mention the Juniors who worked very hard to establish and uphold the reputation of the class?"

In spite of the fact that the girls had an excellent coach (a redheaded Scotchman who proved how proud he was of his position of authority by constantly saying, "Just call me coach!") both the boy's and girl's basketball teams were badly disgraced by receiving defeats from senior teams at a special game played in the gym on January 20. At this game the class reputation was shaken but not broken for there were always the six Juniors lending able support to the varsity football team; and Daniel ReVolt adding to the glory of the class by his superb work on the tumbling team. Too, the band was greatly improved because of the sixteen Juniors who rendered their musical talent toward making it a success.

At the time this article was written the issue at large was the ever-important J-hop. The theme had not yet been decided upon but those in mind were "Snow White," "Alice in Wonderland," and "Ferdinand the Bull." Marian Sell had been appointed general chairman and with the greatest care was selecting the music, decorations, refreshments, program, and ticket committees. These committees, will co-operate in a single endeavor — to make this J-Hop better than all previous ones!

In order to make our Senior trip more certain, the Class of '41 started a banking plan. This plan is an extension of the grade school savings plan and was worked out in co-operation with the Manistee County Savings Bank. Each student, who so desires, deposits a small amount each Monday. The deposit is recorded in a pass book which the student keeps. Money so saved is the property of the student and may be used whenever he desires. Over one hundred students are making deposits and by March 13, $165.35 had been deposited.

Among the students who have received all "A's" and "B's" so far in their high school career are: William Anderson, Jean Borske Wilma Bowers, Jean French, Leonard Holmes, Melissa Melin, Evelyn Nickelson, William Nungessor, Iris Olson, John Peterson, Betty Stordahl, Robert Thomas, and Fern Walters.

Among those who have been successful in Athletics are: Dave Nowak, member of the Varsity Basketball squad; Douglas Flarity, Sam Chapman, Clarence Gumieny, Robert Miehlke and John Peterson of the reserve Basketball squad; and Sterl Bowers, member of the football squad.

John Peterson qualified during his Freshman year for membership in the National Thespians, the National Dramatic Honor Society for High Schools.

Members of the band who are Sophomores are Robert Close, Sam Chapman, Louis Lovelette, Robert Miehlke, John Peterson, Robert Swanson, Warren Simons, Grace Swensen, Phyllis Vadeboncoeur, and Helen Wilks.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

Under the supervision of our class sponsors, Mr. Gonser and Miss Lough, we have elected a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and we have also appointed a cabinet made up of a representative from each of the five home rooms.

This year the Freshman Class has enthusiastically started to save money for our proposed trip in 1942, to Washington D.C. This is an incentive to raise and save every penny we can to pay the expenses of this trip.

In preceding years classes have not started to save for their trip until their junior year. We have dispensed with dues and have set up a saving account in which a student may deposit as much as he wishes. Deposits are made in the student's home room to their representative, whom they have appointed.

We have formed groups of the students in embroidering, crocheting and weaving rugs, furniture making and other woodwork, and in many other projects. We have held a bazar in conjunction with a recent P.T A. and made what we consider amazing progress. Mr. Gonser has secured much data on railroad expenses, hotel bills, sight-seeing tours and information that has to do with our trip. He has also established a map, in his room showing our progress with the amount of money on hand.

We have many ideas and plans for the future from which we have high hopes of reaching our destination, Washington D. C.

The National Honor Society was founded in May 1937, under Miss Thomas' leadership. The members of this society are selected from the junior and senior classes. According to national regulations, the members must be selected from the upper third of these two classes. Fifteen per cent of the total number of the senior class may be members and seven per cent of the junior class. Not only must the members stand high in scholarship, but they must also rank high in leadership, citizenship, and service.

Music Organizations

One of the most active and outstanding organizations in our school is the fifty-two piece high school band. Discarding its caps and capes in 1935 for a complete set of military uniforms, purchased by the board of education and money the band members made through concerts, paper drives and contributions, the band at once set a fast pace which it hopes to continue in the future. Realizing the value of organization, the band elected officers and committees who would make the band an outstanding high school group. Gilman Gambs is this year's president, Phyllis Rykala and Edna Lundbom are the secretary-treasurers, and Henry Nelson is the head librarian.

The band has grown so rapidly that there is a lack of instruments and uniforms. To remedy this situation, Mr. Suda, our director, organized a Band Boosters Club which consists of parents of band members and any one interested in the organization. Mr. Stege was elected President, Mrs. Chapman, vice president, and Mrs. L. Hanson as secretary. The purpose of the club is to sponsor the band, financially and in spirit. The club meets once a month to discuss ways and means of raising money. This year a series of Keeno games was given in collaboration with the N. I. A.; also a series of concerts, bake sales and various other activities which helped the band financially. The club hopes in the future to send the band to festivals, contests, and to send some of the members to music camps in the summer months. The band can not fail with such an enthusiastic group behind it.

This year the band attended two outside football games, one at Ludington and the other at Traverse City as a full group, while the "German Band," consisting of seven pieces, headed by Henry Nelson, played at the other games away. This small group has proved very popular as is shown by the innumerable number of times it has played for assemblies, games P.T.A. meetings, and special affairs.

Glee Club

This year an exchange band concert was arranged with Ludington. The Ludington band gave a program before our high school assembly in January, and we went there in February. This exchange series is to be continued in the future, and may even be extended to other schools. The next week the band presented a concert for the high school assembly. A few weeks later another concert was given at the Lyric Theater before a capacity house, this was followed by two more concerts in March, one at the Washington school and the other at the high school. Besides these programs, small ensembles of the band have played for various P.T.A., club and civic meetings.

The high school orchestra consists of twenty-five players. Although not as active as the band this year, the orchestra has played for many banquets, plays, and local affairs. The orchestra, like the band is still handicapped by lack of enough instruments, but it is hoped that with the aid of the newly formed Boosters Club the proper instruments will be added in the near future.

The glee club, composed of twenty girls, is the youngest musical organization in our school. The group is progressing very rapidly in ability and popularity. This year the glee club went to Ludington with the band to present an exchange assembly. They also sang at the Lyric Theater and at the high school on the band concert series. The membership is limited at the present to the girls, but may be enlarged next year into a mixed chorus.

The Student Organization of Manistee High School is still in its first stages of development as this is the first year it has operated under its new constitution. The objects of the Organization are to encourage cooperation between students and faculty, develop citizenship, and to build up school spirit and morale.

The actual work of the Organization is done by the Student Council. The Council is composed of the president, who is elected by the student body in a general election, one representative from the Eighth grade, and two representatives, a boy and a girl, from each of the other four classes. The council has a regular meeting once a month in which the members discuss any problems which have been referred to them or which come to their attention.

One of the principal projects of the council is a Freshman Orientation Day which is held late in the spring of each year. Council members also act as student chairmen of all assembly programs.

Bill Kruse, John Graves, Norman Bradshaw, Bob Drew, Walter Mikula, Pete Walsh, Edward Kolanowski, Gordon Gielczyk, and Warren Hornkohl. These Seniors should be given credit for being out all season and trying every minute of the game. Bob Drew, Captain of the team, was awarded a trophy by the Kiwanis Club for being the outstanding player of the year.

The Chippewas had an unsuccessful season in football playing two games against Ludington, and one each with North Muskegon, Hart, Traverse City, Cadillac, and Petoskey. We failed to win a game, but we expect our teams will do better in the future. Coach Heckathorne has some good prospects coming up for next year and we hope to have a winning team on the gridiron next season.

A sports banquet sponsored by the Elks' Lodge, Kiwanis Club, and Rotary Clup was held February 15, 1939 at which time letters were presented to the members of the football team. Mr. Charles E. Forsythe, State Director of High School Athletics was the principal speaker. Mr. Forsythe stressed the value of athletic teams in the developing of character and the training for citizenship. This banquet was much enjoyed and appreciated by the members of the team.

Cheer Leaders

The cheer leaders, under the direction of Mr. Gonser, appeared at all home games and many of the out-of-town games. Their colorful uniforms, and their snappy manner of encouraging the spectators to give vocal support to our teams added a great deal of color to our athletic contests, as well as to let the team know we were behind them.

The cheer leaders conducted several pep meetings and taught the student body several new yells. Marymae Davis is a senior and undoubtedly will not be in school next year, but we hope Virginia Racine and Dorothy Krestaff are back to lead us in more yells next year.

TOURNAMENT

Our Chippewas earned the right to play in the Regional Tournament at Petoskey. In their first game they were put up against a strong Petoskey team. Our team left Manistee without the services of Capt. Bob Drew, who was ill. Coach Heckathorne was also ill with the flu. The coaching duties were ably taken care of by Mr. Brainerd. The large floor and the absence of Drew proved very costly, as the team lost by the score of 27-20. Mikula, in his last high school game, scored nine points.

Our Reserve Basketball team was coached by Mr. Brainerd and succeeded in winning five games while losing only three. The Reserves played home and home games with the reserve team of practically all the schools played by our Varsity team, the reserve game being played as a preliminary to the varsity game. This arrangement gave our boys an opportunity to play on floors other than our own, and valuable experience as well. All of the boys, except one, are freshmen or sophomores, and some of the more promising players will be moved up to the varsity team next year. Mr. Brainerd and the boys are to be complimented upon the splendid development they made and the fine record they established.

Boy's Intramural Athletics

A summary of activities of the Intramural Department show a wide diversified program of activities.

During the fall season six man football, touch football, volleyball, and bicycle races headed the program along with a checker tournament in which more than one hundred boys and girls participated. In addition to these a series of boy's assemblies was held in which the boys enjoyed community singing and were entertained by outside speakers.

During the winter months the action centered around basketball with sixty-six teams playing in eleven leagues. Open House was held in the gymnasium each Saturday afternoon when students could take part in any of the large number of activities.

A Word to This Year's GRADUATES:

We have enjoyed the part we have taken in working with you during your high school days . . . helping you "put across" your Junior Class play . . . publicizing your band concerts in the effort to raise money for new uniforms . . . sending Eddie Gunderson up to record the "inside dope" on what's what in the school.

We'd like to work with you after you graduate, too. As a reader of the News-Advocate, if you have suggestions to make for the improvement of the paper . . YOUR paper . . . we will be glad to receive and consider them.

Too, when you take your place in the business world, we'd be glad to discuss and advise with you on your business problems . . make suggestions for the increase of that business through proper advertising.

Congratulations, and lots of luck.

JACK WATSON

Mr. Krause: "How would you punctuate this sentence? The wind blew a ten-dollar bill around the corner."
Clayton Anderson: "I would make a dash after the bill."

Census Taker: "What is your son's income?"
Mr. Gambs: "From two to two-thirty a. m."

Mr. Brainerd: "What inspired the pioneers to set fourth in their covered wagons?"
Arnold Ohst: "Well maybe they didn't want to wait 30 years for a train."

Mr. Gonser: "If you added seventy six thousand, nine hundred and twenty-three to eighty-one thousand, four hundred and twelve, what would you get?"
Gordon Gielczyk: "A wrong answer."

Monty: "Now on this ring I should like you to engrave 'for my darling Mary Jane.'"
Jeweler: "Would it not be better to have simply: 'for my darling.'"

Bob Drew's decrepit old car rolled up to the toll bridge.
"Fifty cents," called the gateman.
"Sold," replied Bob.

Mr. Bendle: "What made you oversleep this morning?"
Freshmen: "There are eight of us in the house, but the alarm was only set for seven."

Miss Clarkson: "Why is your examination paper covered with quotation marks?"
Bill K.: "Out of courtesy for the boy who sat in front of me."
Miss Clarkson: "And why all the question marks?"
Bill K.: "Out of courtesy to the boy who sat behind me."

Norman: "Roger, what make of car do you call that one you have?"
Roger: "Well it's the old reliable type, the R.F.D."
Norman: "What's that?"
Roger: "Rescued from the dumps."

Mr. Capper: "What is the formula for water?"
Laurie A.: "HIJKLMNO."
Mr. Capper: "Nonsense!"
Laurie A.: "You said yesterday it was H to O."

Policeman: "How did you knock him down?"
Motorist: "I didn't! I pulled up to let him go across, and he fainted."

Murphy: "What's that in your pocket?
Pat (in whisper): "Dynamite, I'm waiting for Casey. Every time he meets me he slaps me on the chest and breaks me pipe. next time he does it, he'll blow his hand off."

Long-Winded Lecturer: "If I have talked too long, it's because I haven't my watch with me, and there's no clock in this hall."
Voice from Audience: "There's a calender behind you."

"Move that car along."
"Don't get fresh—I'm a Delta."
"I don't care if you are a whole peninsula. Move that wreck."

Customer (in Penney's): I did not suppose you would remember me. Do you know all your customers?"
Arnold A.: "Yes, I may say I never forget a face that I have fitted with a pair of shoes."

Mr. Hartgerink: "Im surprised at you! Do you know what they do with boys who tell lies?"
Robert B.: "Yes, sir. When they get old enough the firm sends them out as salesmen."
